Miles of style

The hardest thing in fashion is not to be known for a logo, but to be known for a silhouette. Fashion is what you adopt when you don't know who you are.
