

Elkade's attitude towards fashion design is all at the time of peak. I was pursuing fashion as a way to express my individuality and to be different. I came from the country, and in the time I spent in London, I considered myself to be the very model. It was an addition to my understanding of the world I live in.

Fashion icon in a minute

Fashion is something that you can't see in a mirror. It's the way you feel and think when you're in it. It's the way you look when you're in it. It's the way you feel and think when you're in it. It's the way you look when you're in it.

Trend and change fashion

Model's appearance and clothing design are all in the hands of people. Every person has the right to wear what they want, and it is their right to wear what they want. Every person has the right to wear what they want, and it is their right to wear what they want. Every person has the right to wear what they want, and it is their right to wear what they want.

Expressing it through fashion

Fashion is about the time in which you live. It is not something standing alone. But the great problem, the most important problem, is to give it a name. To make it more and more. Then it is not a change. Then it is not a game.
