Glamorous

Sometimes the eye gets so accustomed that if we don't have a change, you've loved it's the same with fashion, you know. And that I suppose, is what style is about.

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is standing in a rocky, desert-like landscape. She is wearing a vibrant green saree with a subtle floral pattern and a matching green blouse. The saree has a long, flowing tail that is a mix of blue and green. She is also wearing large, ornate earrings, a necklace, and several rings. The background consists of large, layered rock formations under a clear sky.

If your eyes caught in gold, there would be paradise... If they only they were colors, they would fly from their common roots... If their colors were their language it would be gold... If their colors were their language, it would be more like colors than their soul in resonance.
