In India, it is a common sight to see women wearing sarees. The saree is a traditional Indian garment, worn by women. It is a long, rectangular piece of fabric, typically 5 to 9 yards long and 3 to 4 yards wide. It is draped over the shoulder and fastened at the waist. The saree is often made of silk, cotton, or wool. It is a popular choice of clothing for women in India, and is worn on a variety of occasions, from casual to formal. The saree is a symbol of Indian culture and heritage.
