A collage of images for a fashion catalog. At the top right is the brand name 'Monalisa' in a stylized font. On the left, there is a vertical line of text in Devanagari script. The central part of the collage features two photographs of the same woman in the same teal and red floral saree. The top photo is a close-up of her back, showing the open back of the red blouse and the saree's border. The bottom photo shows her sitting on the stone steps, similar to the main image on the left. On the right side of the collage, there is another vertical line of text in Devanagari script. At the bottom center, the number '804' is displayed between two vertical bars.
