

A woman is seated on a plush red sofa in a rustic, warm-toned interior. She is dressed in a traditional Indian ensemble, featuring a pink and gold patterned sari with a matching jacket. Her attire is complemented by extensive jewelry, including a large necklace, earrings, a bindi, and multiple rings. She is wearing pink-tinted sunglasses and gold flat shoes. To her left, a decorative metal stand holds several glass vases with green plants. The background features a textured wall and a window with a scalloped frame. The overall aesthetic is rich and traditional.
