A mannequin is displayed wearing a traditional Indian lehenga. The lehenga consists of a red short-sleeved blouse with gold and red striped cuffs, a red skirt with a wide, flared hem featuring multiple horizontal bands of gold and red stripes, and a dark green dupatta with intricate gold and red floral embroidery. The dupatta is draped over the left shoulder and extends down to the floor. The mannequin is positioned against a light-colored, vertically-paneled wall. A white arrow-shaped callout points to the right, containing the text "9 mts flair". A small red heart icon is located at the top right of the callout.
